

PROGRAMME

SPEAKERS:

Sean Power, Institut Florimont/Association Genevoise des Ecoles Privées | Oakleigh Welply, Durham University
| Stuart Kime & Jack Deverson, Evidence Based Education | Karen Taylor, International School of Geneva
| Thibaut Lauwerier & Abdeljalil Akkari, Université de Genève | Ahmed Hussain, Wellington College China

This programme will be offered in French and in English

Thursday 4 July 2019 (afternoon)

- Introductions
- Evening: Dinner and team-building

Friday 5 July 2019

“Research Methods in International Education” - Parallel Sessions (English/French):

- Session 1: T. Lauwerier & A. Akkari / O. Welply
- Lunch
- Session 2: T. Lauwerier & A. Akkari / O. Welply
- Evening: A. Hussain, “Leading a Research Culture”

Saturday 6 July 2019

Parallel Sessions:

- Developing your research action project template
- Lunch
- Research methods: Individual workshops / Consultations on action research projects
- Evening programme: Leisure outing

Sunday 7 July 2019

“How will you measure your success through assessment?”

- S. Kime & J. Deverson / T. Lauwerier & A. Akkari
- Lunch
- S. Kime & J. Deverson / T. Lauwerier & A. Akkari
- Evening: K. Taylor & S. Power: “International Mindedness in the curriculum: theory and practice”

Monday 8 July 2019 (morning)

Wrap-up and follow-up: “Moving forward with your project”

- Attendance of all speakers
- Details on monitoring of your project, available support and online platform
- Official Launch of the Network for International Research Schools.

